

PROVIDENCE PRESERVATION SOCIETY

Sign Up to Volunteer for the 2018 WBNA House Tour!

This year, the Providence Preservation Society is excited to be partnering with the West Broadway Neighborhood Association on their Fall House Tour on Saturday, October 6, from 10 am - 4 pm. PPS is managing volunteer recruitment and coordination for the event.

This year's Tour, "Creative Conversions," will take place on Providence's West Side, centered on Hammond and Harrison Streets. More information on the Tour can be found on the WBNA website. We will need volunteer help to make this event a success! We enthusiastically welcome both new and experienced volunteers. Please invite your friends, relatives, neighbors, and anyone that might be interested in this event to come along and be part of your team.

Two one-hour volunteer training meetings will take place in late September. Volunteers must attend ONE of these meetings, where House Tour information will be available and volunteer assignments handed out. Light refreshments will be served.

-1st Volunteer Training: Thursday, September 20 at 5:30 pm at West Broadway Middle School (29 Bainbridge Avenue). A parking lot is available behind the school, as well as street parking along Westminster

-2nd Volunteer Training: Saturday, September 22 at 10:30 am at WBNA Headquarters (1560 Westminister Street). Street parking is available along Westminster.

Please contact PPS Volunteer Coordinator William Ricci at festivalvolunteer@ppsri.org with any questions!
